The Star Of County Down

Traditionnel Irlandais

Near Banbridge town, in the County Down
One morning last July
Down the boreen green came a sweet colleen
And she smiled as she passed me by

As she onward sped I scratched my head
And I looked with a feeling rare
And I said, says I, to a passer-by
"Who's the maid with the nut-brown hair ?"

She looked so sweet from her two bare feet
To the sheen of her nut-brown hair
Such a coaxing elf, that I shook myself
But to see I was really there

He smiled at me, and with pride says he
"That's the gem of all Ireland's Crown,
Young Rosie McCann from the banks of the Bann
She's the Star of the County Down"

From Bantry Bay up to Derry Quay
From Galway to Dublin town
No maid I've seen like the fair colleen
That I met in the County Down

From Bantry Bay up to Derry Quay
And from Galway to Dublin town
No maid I've seen like the fair colleen
That I met in the County Down
